making a DIFFERENCE

July 2026

This summer has been a busy season for our health system and community. We celebrated the Fourth of July with our NICU babies, welcomed our community to an Open House at the Methodist University Cape Fear Valley Health School of Medicine, and received generous donations from local community partners.

On July 20, we will welcome 64 new students as they will begin their medical education in Fayetteville, NC. Their journey marks an important milestone in our region, and the healthcare landscape will be changed for the better as a result!

We're also looking forward to several upcoming events including Healthcare Appreciation Night with the Fayetteville Woodpeckers on August 13 and the Umoja Festival on August 29 at Seabrook Park.

School of Medicine Open House

We are counting down the days until we welcome the first class of students to the Methodist University Cape Fear Valley Health School of Medicine! On July 9, our community was invited to tour the space, meet faculty and staff and learn more about the school.

Celebrating NICU Babies "First" Fourth of July

Thanks to the generosity of our donors, we are able to help bring a sense of normalcy to our NICU families by making sure they can celebrate many meaningful "firsts" with their babies. A patriotic, fun photo session was held, creating lasting memories for these families!
